

FirstRI C-PACE Projects Receive Financing; Providence Joins Program

Rhodelsland Infrastructure Bank recently announced that the first two Rhode Island Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy (RI C-PACE) projects have received financing. Both projects call for the installation of roof-mounted solar panels on two office buildings in Middletown.

Click here to read more

Bond Refinancings Save Borrowers $5.9 Million

The Bank recently refinanced bonds that will save the City of Cranston, the Providence Water Supply Board, the Bristol County Water Authority, and the City of Newport a combined $5.9 million in future debt service.

Click here to read more

Infrastructure Bank Connects with Community Leaders at League of Cities and Towns Annual Conference, Legislative Day

Rhode Island Infrastructure Bank participated in two notable events recently in an effort to highlight local infrastructure investment opportunities across the state and raise awareness of the financing opportunities available through the Bank.

Click here to read more

