

Infrastructure Bank Receives National Media Coverage in The Bond Buyer

Rhode Island Infrastructure Bank Executive Director and CEO Jeffrey Diehl recently sat down with Paul Burton of The Bond Buyer to discuss how the Bank is approaching infrastructure investments as a strategic economic development tool – supporting and spurring new growth for Rhode Island.

Click here to read more

Infrastructure Bank Meets with Aquidneck Island Communities as Part of Outreach Tour

The Infrastructure Bank recently met with community leaders of Newport, Middletown, and Portsmouth as part of a public outreach tour. In the coming months, Infrastructure Bank staff will be meeting with leaders of all of Rhode Island's municipalities and quasi-public agencies, with the goal of gaining a better understanding of their infrastructure needs.

Click here to read more

RIIB Treasurer Magazine Named

RIB Treasurer Magaziner Named Clean Water Action's "Elected Official of the Year"

Rhode Island Infrastructure Bank Board Treasurer and State of Rhode Island General Treasurer Seth Magaziner was recently awarded Clean Water Action's "Elected Official of the Year" award for his work developing Rhode Island Infrastructure Bank and promoting green infrastructure and energy efficiency projects throughout the state.

Click here to read more

EPA Recognizes Michael Larocque for Years of Service

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) recently commended longtime Infrastructure Bank Chief Financial Officer Michael Larocque by presenting him with a "Recognition of Service to the Drinking and Clean Water Programs." Larocque, who spent 22 years with the Infrastructure Bank, has accepted a new position as the Finance Director for the Town of Burrillville, a customer of the Infrastructure Bank. "We offer our sincere gratitude to Michael for his many years of service, wish him the best of luck in his new position and look forward to working with him as a customer of the Infrastructure Bank," said Jeffrey Diehl, Executive Director and CEO of Rhode Island Infrastructure Bank.